

Impact Report 2024

Photo courtesy of Sonoma County Wildlife

The Wild Neighbors Database Project

We design and develop online data management systems to empower wildlife professionals and advance OneHealth.

The Wild Neighbors Database Project is a United States based 501(c)3 tax exempt non profit organization.

Board of Directors

Rachel Avilla - President

Devin Dombrowski - Treasurer

Doris Duncan

Terra Kelly DVM, PhD, Dipl. ACZM

Sonia Lunacek

Marie Travers - Secretary

Thank You!

Your generosity supports wildlife rehabilitation around the world. We cannot thank you enough for the impact you make by supporting The Wild Neighbors Database Project.

Rachel Avilla

Devin Dombrowski

Co-Founders, The Wild Neighbors Database Project

The Wild Neighbors Board

Back row left to
front row right:

Sonia Lunacek,
Doris Duncan,
Devin
Dombrowski,
Terra Kelly,
Marie Travers,
Rachel Avilla

Current Projects

WRMD

O-WRMD

CETO

WILDALERT

2024 Milestones

O-WRMD received a fun, new logo! O-WRMD was created in partnership with the Oiled Wildlife Care Network and is an oil spill response database for wildlife care.

We partnered with SingleStore to greatly increase the efficiency and speed of WildAlert.

We were awarded a long term O-WRMD agreement with the Oiled Wildlife Care Network.

The Board of Directors held a board meeting at Bird Song Ranch, courtesy of Lizzy Chouinard.

Ceto

This year we launched Ceto, a centralized online tool for collecting and managing marine mammal health and stranding data.

The Wild Neighbors Database Project developed Ceto in partnership with the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation (NFWF), National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), the Deepwater Horizon Open Ocean Trustee Implementation Group, and members of the Gulf of Mexico Marine Mammal Stranding Network.

Rachel and Devin visiting Clearwater Aquarium during Ceto development.

Hosting in-person trainings in Florida for users of Ceto.

Boots on the Ground

WNDR hosted a vendor booth at the 2024 NWRA symposium to connect with WRMD users.

Rachel also spoke about WRMD during a panel discussion at the event.

WNDR team members Rachel, Misty Libby and Brittany Mead.

Rachel and Misty hosted a booth at the New York State Wildlife Rehabilitation Council Symposium and visited several WRMD users in New York and Pennsylvania.

Misty Libby and Rachel Avilla with a mural of a bat at Pennsylvania Bat Rescue in Mertztown, Pennsylvania.

Misty and Rachel hosting the WNDR booth at the New York State Wildlife Rehabilitation Council conference in November 2024.

Rachel Avilla, Dr. Christine Fiorello, Misty Libby. Dr. Fiorello helped to create O-WRMD around ten years ago.

Rachel with the Raven Ridge team. From left to right: Raven Ridge founder Tracie Young, Becky Robinson and Rachel Avilla.

Boots on the Ground

Rachel, Devin, Terra Kelly and Pranav Pandit led a WildAlert hands-on training for Florida Fish and Wildlife Commission in April 2024.

Devin, Terra, Rachel, Misty

Rachel presents on WildAlert.

WNDP and partners UC Davis and EpiEcos represented WildAlert at the inaugural Global Wildlife Data Sharing Workshop held at the Pacific Northwest National Laboratory.

WNDP's partner from UC Davis, Pranav, presents on WildAlert.

Pranav, Rachel, Terra, Devin in Richland, WA.

Our team attended Oilapalooza hosted by the Oiled Wildlife Care Network and UC Davis.

Rachel presented about the upcoming launch of O-WRMD 3.0 and the team provided O-WRMD support during an oil spill response drill.

Devin, Misty, Doris Duncan (Board), Rachel Avilla.

Devin providing O-WRMD assistance during the oil spill response drill.

Year in Review

348

of new WRMD
accounts this year

496,243

of new wild patients entered in
WRMD in 2024

818

of HelpScout
inquiries

Finances

The Wild Neighbors Database Project is successful because of our generous supporters who believe deeply in our mission. While WRMD is our most well known project, grants and contracts received for our other projects, O-WRMD and WildAlert, are how we currently obtain funding to support WRMD.

2024 DONATION HIGHLIGHTS

- Number of donors - 135
- One corporate donation of $25,000

2024 EXPENSES

- $247,019 - Contract services
- $27,870 - Operations
- $47,602 - Education programs & travel
- $1,270 - Equipment
- $747 - Other

2024 REVENUE

- $52,399 - Unrestricted donations
- $382,705 - Restricted funds from grants and contracts for designated projects

We'd like to thank all our donors for their generous support

Acknowledgements

We are grateful for our supporters from all over the globe. Your commitment to using and supporting WRMD keeps us going. We are excited to see where 2025 will take us.

In 2025, we are excited to launch WRMD 4.0! Along with this launch, we will offer a paid Pro version for those who need additional features. While we are excited to offer WRMD Pro, our goal is to always offer a free version of WRMD and your support makes that a reality.